NSS Report: Student Participation in Free Helmet Distribution and Road Safety Awareness Campaign

Students of the Bhulabhai Vanmalibhai Institute of Computer Science, Uka Tarsadia University actively participated in a Free Helmet Distribution and Road Safety Awareness Campaign organized by the Regional Transport Office (RTO), Bardoli. The programme was conducted with the objective of creating awareness among young students about responsible road-user behaviour, traffic rules and the importance of wearing helmets while travelling on two-wheelers.

As part of the programme, participating students received free helmets. The distribution was intended to encourage students to use proper protective equipment while travelling on two-wheelers.

The students were encouraged to use the helmets regularly and to motivate other two-wheeler riders to follow safe riding practices.
