

Teachers' Day Celebration

Date: 05/09/2018

B. V. Patel Institute of Management celebrate Teachers' Day in memory of Dr.Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan. Students made all the arrangements. First half of the function was all about putting steps in to teachers' life. For this experience first three lectures were taken by students.

The cultural function was organised at Manjula Hall and it has started at 12:30 pm with the dashing entries of all the teachers. The students cheered them with claps, whoops and flash lights. Students arranged many fun games and entertaining performances for teachers. Few students gave speech on this occasion and indicate importance of teachers in their life. The students made the teachers to cut the cake and students gifted mementoes to each teacher with warm hearts. It was a memorizing moment for everyone.
