Report on Cricket Tournament

Sports are of vital significance in the overall development of students.. Therefore, students must have a balanced development of the body which will ensure a sound development of mind and enable them to scale new heights in every sphere of life. Keeping this in mind B.V.Patel Institute of Management has organized the Inter class cricket tournament on 23rd January, 2019 at cricket ground, UTU. The tournament saw the students flocking the ground in large numbers. The tournament was organized in order to pound the values of togetherness and team spirit among the students. The tournament was co-ordinate by Dharmaraj Solanki. There were 5 teams who played league match with each other. Finally the cherished moment came, the team from SY BBA & TY BBA reaches in final match. The final match exhibited good cricket from both the team with match falling into the lap of TY BBA.
