Session on "Women Empowerment: Are We Really Empowered? By Shennaz Shaikh

B.V. Patel Institute of Management has organized a session on Women Empowerment: Are We Really Empowered on 9th August 2019 under VANITA-Woman Club of the Institute. The session was conducted by Shehnaz Sheikh TY-BBA (Marketing student). The session started with a small interaction on what is the definition of empowerment to the audience. And then it headed forward with really concise and focused topics such as Empowerment has different layers, Get your priorities straight and so on.

The main aim of the session was to convey an introductory session for a 5 days full-fledged module on the same subject it also holds the girls to be a part of it. Many girls (when encouraged by the speaker) even stood up to share their take/experiences with the subject. The initial response of the session is positive and hoping for more girls to be part of it. Finally the session concluded with a little message of encouragement to be a part of this initiative and enroll their names.
