“Effective PPT Making and Presentation Competition”

Student Development Cell of B.V. Patel Institute of Management organized “Effective PPT Making and Presentation Competition” for the Second Year and Final Year students to showcase their presentation skills crucial for this corporate world. The competition was effectively organized after conducting sessions to teach the student about how to actually prepare for presentation. The event was successfully organized by the students as well as faculty coordination with each other effectively managing 19 participating groups of 3 each.

The positive outcome arising out of this event was that people learned to come up and speak confidently among the mass. The evaluation was judged by honourable faculty members who have achieved pinnacles of glory in their career. The judges invited were:

Dr. Rozy Patel	Head of Humanities Department
Dr. Nipam Chauhan	Head of English Department
Dr. Divya Gadaria	Assistant Professor in the Department of Management
Miss Zarna Kanani	Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science

The competition was quite tough where the result came was as follows:
