Session on Nashabandhi

Students of BBA took part in Expert Talk on “Nashabandhi” to create awareness among students regarding International Day Celebration against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking organised by NSS and Social Service Club of Uka Tarsadia University.

Shri. Narayanmurti Swami from B.A.P.S conducted the session. The session was started with the short video prepared by their volunteers. In his session he talked about what are the causes of drug addiction, smoking and alcohol consumption. He also discussed how this addiction affects the health, financial condition and family peace. Some real-world examples of how this drug addiction ruin the whole family was discussed. Then students were explained various ways to leave this drug addiction and various benefits of it. The whole session was very beneficial to students.
