Janmashtami Celebration

B.V. Patel Institute of Management celebrated the occasion of 'Janmashtami' with lots of enthusiasm with the coordination of Cultural Committee and other students and faculty members. The celebration included organizing Matki Decoration and Flute Decoration Competition, Aarti of Lord Krishna and Dahi Handi session followed by Garba.

As a part of celebration two competitions matki decoration and flute decoration were arranged. Total 65 students participated in matki decoration competition and 6 students participated in flute decoration competition. The celebration was much enjoyed where the credit of its success goes to the entire coordinating and management team without which the celebration would not be possible. The mere coordination of all the faculty members also gave a positive vibe influencing the students' spirit. Participants showed their creativity and made the whole occasion so colourful.
