Session on “Attitude is Everything”

Student Development Cell of B.V. Patel Institute of Management has organized expert session on “Attitude is everything” by Dr. Rahsvin Tailor, Assistant Professor, SRIMA-MBA, UTU on 22nd February 2021. 65 Students of TYBBA were participated this session.

Dr. Tailor has started session with what is attitude in individual perspective and how it is important in the life of students as well as an individual. He has also emphasized on if attitude is right how it will generate energy for work and overall personality. He has shared various examples and from it students were learnt great lesson from that. He has shared some stories and suggested that person’s attitude is much more important than anything. It mentions that Attitude is like a window, how you see world, how you perceive things. When you are way to perceive things changes, everything in your life starts changing..

Students were actively participating in this session with cross questioning and generate example for the attitude concepts. It is really wrathful for the students for the upcoming stage in life.
