B.V. Patel Institute of Management has organized a Panel Discussion for Second Year BBA Students on “women Entrepreneurship” by the students of event management batch 2021 at J.D. Auditorium, Uka Tarsadia University.

The Discussion commenced as Dr. Vijay Gondaliya asked some questions to the panelists about their experience, achievements and challenges faced by them individually in their field of work and how to manage multiple business in a short amount of time.

During the discussion panelist suggested some of how to manage time, innovation, market demand, employee, self, etc. They have discussed various aspects of entrepreneurship such as understanding of market, environment, competitions, etc. as well as how to see the opportunities in the market.

The session was interactive and students have actively participated in the discussion. The session ends with question answer by students and resource person and finally plaque of honour (momento) to the panelists.
