Days Celebration:

Uka Tarsadia University has organised a Six Days Celebration from 21/02/2022-26/02/2022 as a part of enjoyment. Days' celebration has always been very exciting segment of college life for all the students. This includes Cultural day, School day, Floral and Twin day, Retro day, Mismatch day, Group and Signature day. Most of the students celebrated these days in an appropriate way. This celebration gives students memorable moments which they cherish for the lifetime.

February 21: Cultural Day

Cultural celebrations foster respect and open-mindedness for other cultures. Celebrating our differences, as well as our common interests, helps unite and educate us. To understand other's perspective. To broaden our own, and to fully experience and educate ourselves, In a word, heritage.

February 22: Back to School Day

The “summer-ending-and-school-starting” ritual makes students anxious to participate in Back to School Day — an event that helps students and teachers prepare for the new academic year. This will motivate you to start your back-to-school shopping and get you excited overall. So put away the beach bag and pick up the backpack, because it's time for Back to School events and we want you to get an "A" for participation.

February 23: Floral & Twin Day

“Flowers always make people better happier and more helpful; they are sunshine, food and medicine for the soul”. The aim behind the celebrations was that flowers can be taught very innovatively to the children which live long lasting impact on their minds and to expose them to the world of flowers. Twins Day where many wore similar clothes to look like twins.

February 24: Retro Day

In Retro day, Students dressed up according to 60s Bollywood actor or actress to remember the olden days of Bollywood. These retro day defines the oldest fashion of Indians people.

February 25: Mis - Match Day

Students were required to wear “mixed up” and “unmatched” clothes. Children were urged to come out of their comfort zones and come up with new and creative ideas using their imagination and wear clothes to reflect their mismatch personalities. All the children came dressed innovatively to celebrate the ‘Mismatch Day’. They wore different pairs of socks and shoes. Not only did they mix up their shirts and pants but also their hairstyles. The aim was to enable the child to understand the concept of proper dressing and according to the occasion. Students posed happily in their mismatched attire.

February 26: Group & Signature Day

Students of Uka Tarsadia University celebrated their last moments together by organizing a ‘Group & Signature Day’. The campus saw students writing messages and sketching smiley’s and caricatures on each other’s faces and clothes before parting ways. The day was some last-minute bonding with buddies. We are now heading in different directions. So, we thought we should make our last day special and memorable.
