Shrimad Rajchandra was an otherworldly master of Mahatma Gandhiji. Atmasiddhi was his home for his entire life. He wrote Mokshamala to show his students and other Jain devotees the right way to live their lives. SYBBA students were taken in three batches to the Shrimad Rajchandra Museum to see the various events in Shrimad's life and learn important life lessons from them. Artistic carvings depicted the various occurrences, including his birth, the day he felt liberated, Shatavadhan, and many others. At the museum, a video about Shrimad's life was shown. By observing Shrimad Rajchandra ji's daily activities, students have gained knowledge about living a peaceful life. It was a learning visit for students on a spiritual level.
