

B. V. Patel Institute of Computer Science, UTU organized an expert talk on “How to present project work” on 26/08/2023.

An expert talk was organized by SRIMCA, UTU for the students of BCA 5th semester to make them learn presentation and technical skills to present their project work. Ms. Miloni working as DevOps Associate in IAMOPS pvt ltd., Surat make students aware to present the brief background about the motive of the selected project. She convinces students as this will help them to provide enhanced understanding of the project to the audience. Mr. Navdip Hidad an Full Stack Developer at LaNet Pvt Ltd introduced students about the importance of technical presentation skill. He covered briefly on how to represent the technical work through presentation slide with some good examples. Mr. Kuldip, Cyber Security Associate at Ng TechAssurance pvt ltd, security consultant firm, Surat, explain the usage of API in project work and its importance in managing security aspect. He emphasis students to understand the importance of security and levels of security in every project. Lastly Mr. Amish Patel, Asst. Prof. SRIMCA, concluded the talk with the importance of communication skill in presenting project work. It will also aid students to understand project requirement’s and need in the internal team and to avoid miscommunication that may lead to kiosk and inefficient project work. He also gave vote of thanks to Ms. Miloni, Mr. Navdip and Mr. Kuldip for delivering an informative talk.

Total 156 students were present in the expert talk. A talk was co-ordinated by Project committee members of BVPICS namely Mr. Amish Patel, Dr. Asha Patil, Dr. Ronak Patel, Ms. Ami Acharya and Ms. Tanvi Patel.

