The Avishkar 2024 induction program rolled out the red carpet for the bright-eyed FYBBA students embarking on their new academic journey in the BBA program. The inaugural day of this much-anticipated event unfolded with a grand and heartfelt welcome. Dr. Anuradha Pathak and Mr. Dharmaraj Solanki took center stage, providing an immersive introduction to the program, the department, the university, and the vibrant town of Bardoli. Their engaging presentation set a warm and inspiring tone for the day, painting a vivid picture of the exciting journey that lay ahead.

In a particularly touching moment, Dr. Kiran Pandya took to the floor to extend a heartfelt welcome to the new students. With words rich in wisdom and warmth, he not only welcomed them to the BVPIM family but also imparted his blessings, ensuring that each student felt a deep sense of belonging and optimism for the road ahead.

The afternoon session, orchestrated by the dynamic Ms. Bhavna Patel, was a highlight of the day. Her session was a masterclass in experiential learning, skillfully weaving interactive games with crucial management principles. These activities were not just fun and engaging but also served as a practical introduction to the management skills that would be central to the students' academic and professional development.

As the day drew to a close, it was clear that the Avishkar 2024 induction had successfully laid a solid foundation for the students. The mix of informative sessions, personal touches, and interactive learning ensured that it was not just productive but also an enjoyable and memorable beginning to their academic voyage. The event promised an auspicious start to their journey, filled with opportunities for growth, learning, and lasting connections.
