Celebrating International Women's Day

8th March is internationally celebrated as the “International Women’s Day”. It is an important occasion for all of us to pause for a moment to reflect on ourselves, to appreciate how much has been done and what more needs to be done in the field of gender equality. Moreover, it is the day to acknowledge all the men and women in the world for making this world a better place for everyone to live in.

On this day Women’s Cell of UTU had organized session on “Use of Sanitary Napkins in Daily Life”, in which Girls of B. V. Patel Institute of Management has participated at Pushpam Tarsadia hall. The expert who conducted the session was Dr. Naga Ratna Supriya her presence was extremely blissfull and valueable, she also thrown light towards usage of sanitary napkin in day to day life also pros and cons regarding it. The session was simply knowledgeable one and students enjoyed it a lot.
