Session on “Classroom Mannerism and Etiquettes”

B. V. Patel Institute of Management organised a session on “Classroom Mannerism and Etiquettes” as a part of orientation programme 2018. Dr. Rozy Patel was the speaker of the session. In her session she focused on various practices that the students have to follow if they want to be successful in their career.

She explained many concepts like professionalism, dedication, respectfulness, gesture, posture etc. with the help of examples of many successful personalities like Dr. Abdul Kalam, Bruce lee, Sachin Tendulkar, Sushmita Sen, Baahubali movie etc. Overall session was very interactive and students learn many useful concepts from the session.
