Teachers' Day Celebration

B.V. Patel Institute of Management enthusiastically celebrated the auspicious occasion of 'Teacher's Day' in the tribute to India's first Vice-President, Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. The event was well managed by the students of BBA for the faculty and staff members expressing their gratitude towards the mentors.

The session was arranged after the completion of the lectures where the faculties were warmly welcomed at the selfie point / booth prepared the props by the students for the teachers. Then the teachers were introduced by their memorable pictures with a lovely music played by a student of F.Y. in the background which was further followed by the formal felicitation with a token of love to the gurus by the students/ disciples. It was a cheerful environment where the faculties had lot fun playing games and then finally ending up the day with cake-cutting session.

The event went successful with the coordination of students and teachers as well adding value to the department's management efficiency as well as to its united team spirit to work together as a family.
