Session on How to Prepare for Semester Examination

On 10th October, 2019 B.V. Patel Institute of Management organise session on “How to prepare for semester examination” for the students of first year respective class room by Dr. Taral Patel and Nisarg Shah.

Total 160 students of first year BBA were present. In the session covered the full session by discussing how to prepare for the examination. They focussed on internal marks scoring and includes the marking systems of internal as well as external exams. They suggests students to prepare a small booklet for last minute revision. He insists students to learn in group also, which is also one of the best methods to revise the subject.

In the session he highlighted some of the practices which the institute is following from the time of its origin like prayer assembly, discipline, uniformity etc. Overall session was very informative and helpful for students to achieve their goals.
