In order to better equip Uka Tarsadia University students with the communication, stage presence, effective delivery of speech, audience management, and prompt situation tackling skills necessary to become effective communicators, the Center for the Humanities at Uka Tarsadia University has organized a workshop on "Show Hosting" on 06/04/2023. Ms. Jagruti (Anchor Jazz), a prominent figure in the South Gujarat area of the field of public communication, gave the keynote speech at the workshop.

She stressed several key areas, including appearance, preparation, clarity, vocal control, self-assurance, and public speaking in front of a large audience. The instructor also spoke to the class about the many occasions in which show hosting can play a significant role, including corporate conferences, seminars, sessions, wedding festivities, etc. Students were able to ask questions and get their concerns about hosting a concert addressed during this interactive workshop. The teacher urged the class to speak up at every possible chance because doing so would boost the kids' self-esteem. Ms. Jagruti also included some games in her presentation to keep the audience interested and demonstrate the value of having fun while learning. Students learned a lot and had a great time.
