A session was conducted at the Gopal Bhavan Auditorium for SYBBA (Second Year Bachelor of Business Administration) students, focusing on the forthcoming 5th-semester Summer Project Work. Out of the total cohort of 144 students, an impressive turnout of 132 students attended the session, indicating a high level of interest and engagement.

The session started by emphasizing the significance of summer projects in creating practical knowledge and skills, aligning with the academic curriculum's objectives. Students were briefed on the project's purpose, which includes applying theoretical concepts to real-world scenarios, enhancing research capabilities, and fostering critical thinking.

Lastly, the session effectively completed SYBBA students with the necessary guidance and information by Dr. Vivek Ayre and Mr. Parvez Malek, highly supported by Dr. Vijay Gonadaliya, Director of BVPIM from to start on their 5th-semester Summer Project Work with confidence and clarity.
