Program outcomes: The annual function fosters the sense of belongingness among students. Speeches, performances and presentations inspire students to pursue their passion and strive for excellence always.

The “Mosaic-The Annual function 2024” was a spectacular event with the presence of the provost- Dr. D. R. Shah, the director of the institute Dr. Vijay Gondaliya, faculties of BVPIM and dear students. The program started with the introductory remark by anchors. Then the director gave a detailed annual progress of the institute and boost the confidence of the students by his address. The provost, Dr. D. R. Shah gave an inspirational speech and imparted words of wisdom for students. Another keynote address was presented Dr. Rozy Patel, living audience amused and making the students understand the importance of learning.

The program aimed to celebrate the academic journey of all achievers, thus for it, all academic achievers get recognized with certificate from the hands of Provost, the director and other faculty members.

The annual function featured a captivating cultural extravaganza. Musical performances and dance recitals enthralled the audience, highlighting the creativity and artistic prowess of the students. The cultural performances added a touch of elegance and entertainment to the event, leaving a lasting impression on everyone present.

Mosaic was a grand success epitomizing the spirit of academic excellence, cultural diversity, and collective celebration. And at last students danced at their heart out in DJ.
