One of the elaborate ceremonies practised in India is the welcoming of new family members. To welcome the new members, first-year students, the B. V. Patel Institute of Commerce and Management organised a fresher's party.

The event at Pushpam Tarsadia Hall got underway at 9:30 am. The UTU Anthem was played to start the event. Following that, Dr. Vijay Gondaliya and Dr. Arpana Patel blessed the students with their energising and inspiring remarks. They were grateful for the effort put out by the student volunteers who helped make the event possible. An exciting casual event for first-year students has been planned by B. V. Patel Institute of Commerce and Management's second- and third-year students. The event features a variety of talents, including singing, dancing, musical parodies, and speeches. Through their performance, the students demonstrated their inventiveness. There were 27 performances in total from students studying business and management.

The student and faculty coordinators of management and commerce for first-year students also organised Mr. and Ms. Freshers. Following the talent round, the contestants performed a ramp walk, and in the final round, they responded to the judges' questions. Ms. Arpita Vyas and Ms. Nimisha Jariwala. The titles of Mr. and Ms. Freshers were won, respectively, by Mr. Dipen and Ms. Somya Upadhyaya. Sash, crown, and a gift basket were presented to the victors as tokens of appreciation.

Students have enjoyed DJ as well. All of the students shown their energy and enthusiasm through their dance moves. It was a fun filled event for freshers.
