Vasant Panchami, also known as Saraswati Puja, is a significant Hindu festival that marks the arrival of spring and is dedicated to the goddess Saraswati, the divine embodiment of knowledge, wisdom, and the arts. The festival is celebrated with great enthusiasm, and on 14th February 2024, the B. V. Patel Institute of Management at Uka Tarsadia University hosted a special event to commemorate Vasant Panchami.

The celebration commenced at 12:30 pm, with the entire BBA student and faculty members in attendance. The venue was beautifully adorned with colorful decorations, flowers, and a Photograph of Goddess Saraswati. The atmosphere was filled with a sense of spirituality.

Rajvi Bhatt, a student of SYBBA delivered speech highlighting the significance of Vasant Panchami and the importance of education in one's life. As a symbol of community and togetherness, prasad was distributed among all the attendees. It created a sense of unity and shared celebration among the students and faculty members.
