BVPIM in collaboration with Progress Alliances Club Surat for Development of Entrepreneurial Skills in Students of SYBBA. The Resource Person Shri Rahul Gavte and Manish Busa from PA Group Surat had enlightened students with their vast experience in soft skill coaching to business entrepreneurs. They have shared their practical learning's on importance of dreaming and also to write down the dream on paper and convert it into smart goals for execution. Role play for students were done on various topics of his expertise of drafting vision, mission and drafting statement of purpose and link it to the dream of entrepreneur's.

Even a video related to the expert session of Honorable PRIME MINISTER SHRI NARENDRA MODI was displayed regarding, “Getting things done and Letting things happen”. The first reflects a Active Attitude and the second reflects a Passive Attitude.

The person who lives with the first type of attitude seems to adapt change and thinks that change can happen but the person who lives with the second type of attitude thinks that let it be, things have also been working the past, are working right now and will also work in the future.

OUTCOME: -

- The importance of doing things in the present time rather than leaving them for the future.
- Do not rely on future aspects rather live in the present and plan for the future.
- Students were made to realize the importance of helping family members as it is also their responsibility to help them.

It was a very interactive sessions as students were engaged in question answer session keeping them involved. The students were asked too memorize their homes starting from the entrance till the end of the place, and find the small loop holes that exist into every household. The session was very interactive and students enjoyed the practical tips given by all successful entrepreneurs. All students had a great learning and cleared all their doubts by asking innovative questions to the keynote speakers.

We are extremely thankful to Dr. Vijay Gondaliya Sir – Director of B.V. Patel Institute of Management for always motivating us for such value-based learning for skill development of BBA students of BVPIM.
