On September 20, 2024, the Theatre Club of Uka Tarsadia University organized an engaging anchoring event centered around the vibrant theme of Navratri. The event took place at the Shrimad Hall, where students showcased their talents and creativity in a festive atmosphere. Among the participants were Khushee Ramani from FYBBA Div 3 and Krish Mistry from FYBBA Div 2, both representing B. V. Patel Institute of Management. The event featured a series of performances, with contestants required to deliver speeches that captured the essence and spirit of Navratri.

Khushee Ramani impressed the judges and audience alike with her eloquence and passion, earning a spot among the top 9 contestants. Her speech highlighted the cultural significance of Navratri, celebrating its traditions, rituals, and the joy it brings to communities. Krish Mistry also contributed to the event, showcasing his skills and enthusiasm. The Theatre Club's initiative to celebrate the festive season through such an engaging medium was well-received, leaving a lasting impact on everyone present.
